Speaker:

Wanda Bush,
IL Dept of Employment Security

Wanda is a Field Office Supervisor for the Dept of Employment Security (IDES) in Rockford. She has been with the agency for 33 years and has spent many years adjudicating Unemployment Claims. She was involved in the upgrade of IDES computer systems, and provides extensive employee training throughout the Northern Region to IDES staff. Many years ago, Wanda noticed the disparity between the amount of information given to individuals filing for Unemployment Benefits, and that given to employers. She developed an Employer UI Seminar to provide additional information to employers in the community. Since that time, Wanda has presented to numerous Chambers of Commerce and employer groups. She looks forward to providing our EBANI members the most recent information available on this important update.
