

Employee Handbook Best Practices

Speaker Bio:

Maryjo Pirages Reynolds Associate, Hinshaw & Culbertson

Maryjo defends the interests of employers in a range of labor and employment matters. She counsels clients within the business sector on business and commercial transactions and assists individuals and families with estate planning and administration. Committed to working hand-in-hand with employers, Maryjo helps businesses of all sizes navigate the ever-changing legal landscape in order to limit their liability and exposure. In addition to helping employers ensure they are complying with statutory and administrative regulations, Maryjo advises them on their contracts, policies, and the development and implementation of employee handbooks. She has defended employers against charges of discrimination and retaliation involving the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and the Illinois Department of Human Rights, as well as claims alleging unfair labor practices filed with the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB).

Please join us as Maryjo Pirages Reynolds present best practices in the development and implementation of employee handbooks. She will also provide a review of recent benefit and legislative updates.
