

Employment Law Updates

Speaker Bios:

Jim Pirages, Maryjo Pirages Reynolds & Evan Bonnett
Allen Galluzzo Hevrin Leake, LLC

Jim Pirages has more than 30 years of experience representing management and employers in labor and employment matters. He handles investigations of unfair labor practice charges and represents employers in proceedings of the National Labor Relations Board and Illinois State Labor Relations Board. In the area of employee benefits, Mr. Pirages handles defense of collective bargaining agreement claims involving employer obligations to contribute to pension, health and welfare funds.

Evan Bonnett concentrates his practice on helping employers navigate federal and state labor law on such issues as labor relations, union organization, collective bargaining, defending against unfair labor practices and union welfare and pension fund obligations. He also counsels on discrimination and harassment, leaves of absence, OSHA and safety, employment contracts, wage/hour issues, workplace standards and policies, and employee training.

Maryjo Pirages Reynolds helps businesses of all sizes navigate the ever-changing legal landscape to limit their liability and exposure. She advises them to ensure they are complying with statutory and administrative regulations by advising on contracts, policies and development of employee handbooks. She has defended employers against charges of discrimination and retaliation, as well as claims alleging unfair labor practices.
